DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 30 August 2007 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4, 9-13 and 21-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4, 9-13 and 21, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sliwa et al (US Patent No. 5,560,362), hereinafter Sliwa ('362). Sliwa ('362) discloses an apparatus and method for delivering acoustic energy to a target site comprising a catheter (col. 21 line 64 – col. 22 line 3), wherein the apparatus includes a transducer having a surface configured to be placed on a tissue (Fig. 1), a channel adjacent to the transducer and adapted for carrying cooling fluid, a fluid source, a lumen in communication with the channel and fluid source (col. 13 lines 21-66), a heat exchanger (col. 13 lines 47-49), and an acoustic energy sensor adjacent the transducer, wherein the acoustic energy sensor comprises a neurological signal sensor. Sliwa ('362) additionally discloses steps for sensing a reflected acoustic signal associated with the delivered acoustic energy, and analyzing the reflected acoustic signal to determine a location of a vessel ("catheter-based imaging or doppler transducers," col. 21 line 64 – col. 22 line 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sliwa ('362). Sliwa ('362) substantially teaches all features of the present invention as previously discussed for claim 21, with the exception of the step of delivering a blood thinning agent to the tissue region prior to delivering the acoustic energy. Examiner hereby takes Official Notice that it is known in the art to administer blood thinners such as aspirin or heparin to the patient in combination with ultrasound treatment therapy as claimed in the instant application.
